PRICE THREE CENTS

FAIL TO SIGHT NAVAL AIRMEN

Information Still Lacking Regarding Party 'Mushing' South From Moose Factory

LIKE CASE RECALLED

Two Gordon-Bennett Trophy Contestants in 1910 Were Lost in Canada Seven Days

Montreal, Ont., Jan. 9.—Information today was lacking in regard to the three American balloonists who are returning from Moose Factory, near where they descended December 14.
The time of their arrival is still problematical.

George MacLeod, one of the Indian runners, who brought the aeronauts' despatches here from Moose Factory, said tonight he does not expect them to arrive until tomorrow.

The Indian said 11 days, the time consumed by his party in covering the distance along the Missinabi from Moose Factory was a record. It usually takes two weeks to make the trip, he added.

Carry Lieutenant Farrell.

Lieutenant Farrell, the Indian runner, is being brought back on a sled especially fitted for the purpose. He suffered more from exposure than his companions and was too weak to "mush" with the others.

Newspaper correspondents, who saw up hope that the party would arrive at Cochrane over the Abitibi river trail, arrived here early today.
None of the scouts sent out by them had returned tonight.

Official documents from Washington for the naval aeronauts are in care of a member of the Royal Canadian mounted police, who was ordered to wait at this point.

Factor Maror of the Hudson Bay company said tonight that Oliver Mack, the Indian guide leading the Americans out of the rigid wilderness, is an exceptionally capable man and owns some of the finest and fastest malamutes in this country.

The Missinabi trail, MacLeod declared, was open in many places and the party would be compelled to make numerous detours. He said he was certain this trail would be followed because the Indians would be forced to do so before they left Moose Factory. They would make their last camp at Skunk Island, 20 miles out, he added.

Story Parallels Present One.

New York, Jan. 9.—Aviation's thrilling history, filled with adventurous journers in balloon and airplane, already contains a story paralleling the one created by the flight into the frozen fastnesses of northern Canada which has focused the news-hungry readers of the world on the three American Neutenanits who recently completed it.

In 1910 two New York airmen, Alan R. Hawley and Augustus Post, were lost among the untrodden wilderness of Canada for seven days after traveling 1,200 miles through the air from St. Louis in the balloon America II.

They floated northward for two days and two nights, crossing over the Great Lakes and beyond the outposts of which are few and far between in the northland. Despairing of finding a suitable landing place, they brought their gas bag down into dense trees, ending a trip that won the Gordon Bennett trophy and set a new record for distance, and beginning a tramp over unknown lands that dwarfed in public interest their thrilling experiences in the air.

Exhausting themselves from the limbs of trees entangled in their balloon, Post and Hawley tramped along a stream and later around the hem of a lake, as the woods were impenetrable and trackless. For four days and four nights they pushed southward, through snowstorms, rain and biting cold winds, and with little to eat. Hawley wrenched his knee and the pair stopped to rest at the first suitable place they found—an old cave.

There they played, exchanged confidences to be carried back by whichever one lived it either failed to get back home, and then took a fresh start. The next day they came upon a shore, the first sign of civilization they had encountered, and a few days further a tent.

Rescued by Trappers.

They spent the night in this tent and the next morning, going down to the edge of a lake they pierced the air with yells of greeting. From across the water came a reply, and then two trappers in a canoe. The trappers took the airmen down a river in canoes for two days until they reached Timmins, a settlement from where they communicated with the world back to New York. They had left St.
Louis October 17 and the first word came from them October 28.

A balloon trip that ended above the North sea, was made by Captain Von Sack during the 1920 Gordon Bennett race, which started from Berlin.
A passing steamer spied the guide rope splashing through the water, and towed the balloon back to the coast of Norway with the rope secured to the stern of the ship and the balloon floating overhead.

Being lost to the world was not a new experience to Lieutenant Walter Hinton, one of the three Neutenanits who recently piloted the A-5355 from

REPORT IRISH PEACE PROPOSALS HAVE FAILED

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 9.—It reports in official circles are to be credited, all negotiations looking to peace in Ireland have broken down. Definite information is lacking, but it is said that Premier Lloyd George has definitely refused to consider the Sinn Fein proposal for the withdrawal of the home rule bill.

Officials here take a gloomy view of the situation. The increased activity recently on the part of the military and Republicans in the martial law areas is considered as indicating an extension of guerrilla warfare.

CARDINAL PLEADS FOR IRISH RELIEF

Distressing Conditions Prevail in Every Part of the Land, Boston Prelate Tells Public

Boston, Jan. 9.—Cardinal O'Connell tonight called for assistance for those "facing the danger of starvation" in Ireland to the end that "the spirit of the Irish people in the life and death struggle for their rights" might be sustained. His call was contained in a letter sent to a mass meeting of the friends of Irish freedom.

"There are various groups in this country whose whole purpose is to help the people of Ireland to obtain their rightful place among the nations. There may be legitimate divergence of opinion as to means and measures, but the spirit which should animate all should be the same.

"Reports based upon the most accurate observations tell of the distressing conditions existing in every part of the land. Many thousands are facing the danger of starvation; scores of thousands are in dire need. The cruel winter is upon them and we must come to their rescue."

LORD DECIES CANDIDATE FOR IRISH PARLIAMENT

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 9.—The first candidate publicly to offer himself for election to the Southern Irish parliament is Lord Decies, who has written a letter for publication tomorrow in the Irish newspapers, in which he admits that the home rule bill is far from perfect, but says "it represents a gift of self government which is ours for the asking."

Lord Decies married Vivian Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J.
Gould of Lakewood, N. J.

RIBBON WEAVERS BALK AT NEW WORKING PLAN

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 9.—More than 2,000 union ribbon weavers employed in the mills here will report for work 40 minutes later tomorrow morning.
This announcement was made as a result of the proposal of manufacturers to extend the present 44-hour week to a 45-hour week, with a reduction of wages of from 10 to 20 percent.

The new schedule calls for the beginning of the day's work at 7:20 a. m., but the members of the local union asserted they will begin work at 8 o'clock, as has been the recent custom.

GUARD RELIEF STEAMER

Queensdown, Ireland, Jan. 9.—On the arrival here today from New York of the American steamer Honolulu with a cargo of provisions on board for the relief of the unemployed in Cork, the authorities placed an armed guard on the vessel. Notwithstanding the protests of the captain, the guard remained on the steamer.

OPERA SOPRANO DIES

Montreal, Canada, Jan. 9.—Beatrice Lapalme, widely known Canadian grand opera soprano, is dead at her home here. She was born in Beloit, Quebec, 49 years ago.

MORTON MEMORIAL SERVICES

New York, Jan. 9.—Memorial services in honor of Levi P. Morton, former vice president of the United States, who died at Rhinebeck, N. Y., on May 15, 1920, his 96th birthday, were held here today in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Rockaway Air station into Canada.
He was a pilot on the NC-4, the famous naval seaplane which made the first trans-Atlantic air voyage, and was in the cockpit of that plane when it was lost out in the Gulf of Mexico in December, 1919.

On that occasion the NC-4 left Galveston, Tex., early in the morning on an intended non-stop flight to Mexico, Ala. Throughout the day and the night and part of the following day the famous seaplane was unheard from. The government was making arrangements to send an armada of seaplanes and boats into the gulf to look for the missing craft, when a radio message from it was picked up in New Orleans.

The NC-4 reported it has been forced to come down by low-hanging clouds off the southeastern coast of Louisiana. When on the water the wireless on the plane was not powerful enough to carry many miles and communication was impossible until the craft took to the air again the following afternoon.

At That Reuben Bland Has 'Em All Guessing

Haleigh, N. C., Jan. 9.—Since wide publicity was given to the fact that Reuben Bland of Robersonville, Beaufort county, was the proud father of 34 children, he and Mrs. Bland have been deluged with letters from persons all over the United States and Canada.

The letters are from both women and men. A man in Ohio wrote:
"I read the story about your large family aloud to my wife. There's a man who ought to be given a medal, I told her. There's a man who ought to be hanged, she retorted."

A writer in Oregon sent this:
"Reuben, Reuben, I am thinking.
"You are quite a nifty man.
"To your health I am drinking.
"You have done what few men can."

From Navarre, O., Mr. Bland received this:
"I'm the father of eight children and I have an awful time keeping them in food and clothing. I've worried a lot, but since reading about your big family, I realize that I'm a lucky man."

LEAGUE REVIEWS ITS FIRST YEAR

Three Measures Desired to Prevent War Are Carried to Conclusion by the Convention

OTHER VITAL ISSUES

Fight Against Typhus, Repatriation of War Prisoners and Other Work Cited

Paris, Jan. 9.—The secretary of the League of Nations today issued an official document entitled "The work accomplished by the League of Nations during the first year of its existence, Jan. 20, 1920, to Jan. 19, 1921," enumerating the various questions settled or discussed by the League. It mentions first the establishment of a permanent international court of justice; second, the work accomplished in the limitation of armaments; and third, the creation of an international commission to study use of the blockade as an economic weapon. The three foregoing are mentioned as "measures desired to prevent war."

Under the heading "efforts at political conciliation," the document refers to the question of the Aland Islands, upon which the League commission will report within three weeks.

As measures desired to remedy the economic crisis, the report says, the creation of an economic and financial organization in accordance with the conclusion of the Brussels financial conference and the organization of a transit commission were foremost in the work of the League.

Concerning humanitarian measures, the report says, the League elaborated a series of projects, including an appeal for funds to fight typhus, the acceptance of responsibilities for opium traffic control and also the white slave trafficking, caused the United States, Brazil and Spain to accept mediation in Armenia, and effected the repatriation of more than a hundred thousand war prisoners.

Regarding execution of the peace treaty, the League points out the following missions accomplished:

One—Administration of the Saar valley.

Two—Direction of the affairs of the free city Danzig.

Three—Rejection of the German government's conclusion and asking another plebiscite in Eupen and Mal-

BASEBALL BREAK AVERTED

Chicago, Jan. 9.—Possibility of a further disagreement in professional baseball, either between the two major leagues or between the majors and the minors, apparently was swept aside today through statements of policy made by presentation of the two great groups which indicated that the joint meeting to be held Wednesday would find them in agreement in all points in regard to the reorganization of the game.

medi and the final awarding of the territories to Belgium.

Four—The establishment of a permanent mandate commission to administer the affairs of former German colonies.

Five—Acceptance of responsibility for the protection of minorities.

Six—The registering of 69 treaties in accordance with the stipulations of the treaty of Versailles.

DERAILED COAL CAR CRASHES INTO D. & H. STATION AT UNADILLA SATURDAY

Station Agent Charles A. Castle and Assistant Lee Rider Have Narrow Escape From Serious Injuries — Building Badly Wrecked—No Passengers in Waiting at Time of Accident

Saturday morning, about 10 o'clock, a big car, loaded with coke, seventh in a north-bound D. & H. train, became derailed at a point about 1,000 feet south of the station at Unadilla. Its wheels kept the general course of the train, however, until the crossing at the station was reached, but when the trucks mounted the crossing planks they swerved to the east. For some feet the curb protecting the station platform kept the car moving ahead, but when it reached the south end of the station it took to the platform and crashed through the bay window of the office on the front side of the station. Continuing, it crashed through the outer wall of the station, through a portion of the waiting room, the ladies' lavatory and then swung more nearly to a right angle to the track with the forward end in the baggage room and the forward trucks in the basement below, where it stopped, with its lead practically intact. Its rear trucks were then close to the rails.

The front of the passenger station, as described by an American Legion man, looked as if it had been shelled by a German field gun. Fortunately the only two occupants of the station at the time, Charles A. Castle, the local agent, and his assistant, Lee Rider, both of whom were in the office at the time, were unharmed, although they were but a few feet from the moving car when it crashed through the office, which was badly wrecked and the spring wreckage could easily have caught them. The accident happened after the northbound morning passenger train had passed through the village and before the passengers had commenced to gather for the southbound train.
Had there been people in waiting at the time it is quite probable that some fatalities would have resulted.

Among other and numerous unusual features of the derailment, which ordinarily would have attracted no attention had it occurred other than at the side of a passenger station, is the fact that the only other portion of the train derailed was the forward truck of the next car in the train. That car, however, did not go beyond the ties. The fact that the train moved about 1,900 feet before the trouble was discovered and then only when the car crashed into the passenger station, is also strange.

The wrecking crew, on its arrival at the scene, soon had the refractory car back upon the rails and the trouble so far as traffic movements were concerned was over. The heating plant of the station was put out of commission and the building rendered untenable at the time. Superintendent McNeillie, who visited the scene promptly, had two coaches with baggage compartments on the siding near the station which were used as desks for 24 hours and more. Workmen soon had the debris cleaned away and carpenters yesterday boarded up the openings made by the crash and the station was used in part last evening. The building will at once be repaired, it being estimated at a cost of about $1,500.

HARDING QUILTS SENATE DUTIES

Resignation Is Sent Governor-Elect Davis of Ohio, Who Will Take Office Today

WILLIS TO BE NAMED

President-Elect Will Devote Time Between Now and March 4 in Preparation for Inauguration

Marion, O., Jan. 9.—President-elect Harding resigned today as United States senator for Ohio, forwarding his letter to Columbus for action by the newly-elected governor, Harry L.
Davis, who assumes office tomorrow.

The move was in accordance with the President-elect's announced purpose to give up his senate seat as soon as a change in the state administration would admit the appointment of a Republican successor. Governor-Elect Davis has indicated Frank B.
Willis, elected senator for the term beginning next March, would be named to fill the vacancy.

Following the wishes of Mr. Willis, Mr. Harding made January 15 the effective date of his resignation. By giving up his senatorial office then the President-Elect will be permitted to devote the last six weeks before his inauguration wholly to the preparation for the duties of his administration.

Unique Inauguration Planned.

That the inauguration ceremony of March 4 may include a ceremony unique in the history of such affairs, was indicated today when it became known that Mr. Harding had approved a plan to have all the members of the electoral college in Washington for the occasion. The proposal was made by the group of Ohio electors, who suggested at first that all Republican electors be invited and later modified the plan to include an invitation to Republicans and Democrats alike.

Such a meeting would have no formal nor legal significance, since the actual casting of ballots by the electors takes place tomorrow in the various state capitals and they will be convened by congress more than two weeks in advance of inauguration day.

Tax revision, appropriation measures and reorganization of the executive department of the government were discussed by Mr. Harding today with Senator Smoot of Utah, who has made a close study of all of these subjects. Afterwards Senator Smoot said he believed that the president-elect had definite ideas that would lead to practical economies and reforms during the coming administration.

Predicts Enormous Savings.

The Utah senator predicted that $200,000,000 would be saved annually by reorganization of the department on an efficiency basis and that many of the burdens of taxation would be lifted by the revision of the next congress.

He said the higher rates of the excess profits schedule would have to be reduced, however, and gave it as his opinion that the head of that class of taxes would be fixed at about 50 per cent.

Senator Harding also had a long talk this afternoon with Dr. C. F.
Brooks of New York, whom he invited to his home after listening to him preach here today at the Trinity Epistalian church. The sermon was on the Spiritual Consequences of the Versailles Peace, and it was for a further discussion of the subject that Dr.
Brooks was invited to see the President-Elect.

HOBOS UNION AT CHURCH

Unemployed Under Leadership of Urbin J. Ledoux Fill Front Seats of Old Trinity Church.

New York, Jan. 9.—After services had started this morning at historic Trinity church, Broadway and Wall streets, 141 unemployed men, members of the "Hoboes Union," entered the church and filled the front pews. The men filed quietly into the edifice during a prayer and took their places without any commotion in the pews designated by the sexton.

Urban J. Ledoux, an official of the Hoboes union, announced yesterday that 600 jobless men would attend the services today, but 141 were all he could muster this morning on the Bowery, the starting point of the parade. The marchers did not appear defeated by their enforced idleness, many of them singing lively tunes as they wended their way through the streets from the Bowery.

GOMPERTS IN MEXICO CITY FOR LABOR CONFERENCE

Mexico City, Mexico, Jan. 9.—Samuel Gompers and 14 other representatives of American labor, accompanied by a Mexican reception committee, arrived in Mexico City shortly before noon today, to attend the Pan-American Federation of Labor conference, which begins tomorrow.

Aside from declaring that the purpose of the present gathering was "to create good relations among the laborers of the United States, Mexico and South America," Mr. Gompers had little to say regarding the program to be followed, asserting that he did not desire to anticipate the work of the conference.

NEW BERLIN MAN DEAD IN AUTOMOBILE MISHAP

Syracuse, Jan. 9.—Seth Wittemore, a farmer of New Berlin, was killed, and his wife and George Semis probably fatally injured when an automobile in which they were riding swerved on a slippery road at the foot of a hill and dropped 39 feet into the Erie canal at Rockville late today. Mrs. Se-mis escaped injury.

READY TO WORK IN LEGISLATURE

Supplementary Message From Governor Is Expected When Both Houses Reconvene Wednesday

TO NAME CHAIRMEN

Particular Interest Centers in Selection of Ways and Means Committee Leader

Albany, Jan. 9.—A supplementary message from Governor Miller is anticipated when the legislature reconvenes on Wednesday night to take up the real work of the 1921 session. The Governor has not indicated what subject will be treated in his communication to the law makers, but it is known that he has several matters under consideration; namely, repeal of the daylight saving law, restoration of party nominating conventions for state and judicial officers, prohibition enforcement, and reorganization of the public service commissions.

A bill to provide for the restoration of the nomination conventions will be introduced Wednesday night by Senator Charles W. Walton, Republican, of Ulster, who sponsored a similar measure last year. In view of the declaration of the unofficial Republican convention at Saratoga last July in favor of such action, combined with the knowledge that Governor Miller is a convention advocate, it is anticipated that there will not be any serious obstacle to the passage of the Walton bill, as the Democratic representation in the legislature is too small to thwart the majority program.

Rivalry for Chairmanship.

Bills designed to repeal the daylight saving law were introduced at the opening session last week.

Even of more interest among the members of the legislature than the forthcoming message from Governor Miller is the decision which Speaker H. Edmund Machold will announce on Wednesday night as to the chairmanship of the ways and means committee of the assembly. Speaker Machold was chairman of the ways and means committee for four years preceding his election as presiding officer of the lower house. The contest for the chairmanship is between Assemblymen Joseph A. McGinnies of Chautaqua and Frank L. Seaker of St.
Lawrence. Mr. Seaker is the senior member of the committee, and Mr.
McGinnies was for a time an active candidate for the speakership. In his campaign for the speakership he was supported by the virtually united delegation from the western section of the state. After his withdrawal from the race for speaker Mr. McGinnies sought the ways and means committee chairmanship, and his western New York adherents backed him to a man. Mr. Seaker, on the other hand, has strong backing from the central and northern sections. The rivalry between the two candidates and their supporters has become so keen that there has been some talk of a compromise candidate, Assemblyman Bart Lord of Chenango being mentioned in that connection.

It is expected that there will be few changes in the personnel of the judiciary committee, which is to pass upon the resolutions introduced last Wednesday designed to unseat the three Socialist members of the assembly. This committee, it is understood, is opposed to ousting the "minor minority" this year. Consequently, it is believed that the resolutions will not be reported out. Assembly leaders also incline to the belief that no serious attempt will be made to discharge the committee from consideration of the ouster resolutions, and even if such a move should be made they believe that the sentiment of the majority of the members will be in favor of allowing the Socialists to remain.

Several Committee Vacancies.

Among the assembly chairmanships to be filled this year are those of the cutes committee, made vacant by the election of George R. Fearon of Onondaga to the senate; general law, held last year by Alan V. Parker of Niagara, who did not return to the legislature, public education, the former incumbent, Morrell E. Talbot of Madison, having retired from the house; and public health, last year's chairman, Raymond T. Kenyon of Essex, also being an assembly alumnus.

In the senate, Charles J. Hewitt of Cayuga will succeed to the chairmanship of the important finance committee, taking the place of Henry M.
Sage of Albany, who did not seek re-election. Other chairmen to be named by Majority Leader Clayton R.
Lusk are the heads of the committees on public service internal affairs agriculture, banks, civil service and military affairs.

PROTESTS FURTHER LOANS.

Paris, Jan. 9.—The French minister in Athens has telegraphed the foreign office saying that he and the minister of Great Britain and Italy would visit the Greek premier and again protest against the Greek government's requisitioning the second half of the allied loan of 400,000,000 drachmas. The foreign office says the purpose of the second protest is to show that there is complete accord among the allies in the matter and to refute reports of lack of harmony.

JOHNSON PROJECTS NEW PRIMARY LAW

Senator Forecasts His Intentions of Putting Forth Federal Presidential Proposal

Washington, Jan. 9.—Senator Johnson, Republican, California, issued a statement today forecasting his intention to put forth his project for a federal presidential primary law, but recognizing opposition to be met in the effort.

"Progressivism has not passed; certain progressives have," Senator Johnson said. "The limelight professors who were more interested in office than in policy, have wanted their horrible task forgotten and have endeavored to atone by out regularly, but progressivism is yet enshrined in the hearts of millions.

"Reaction is on the way. We witness the assault all along the line upon the direct primary. If this succeeds, there is little that exploiting privilege has to fear from public officials. The bitter, concerted movement against labor is the accompaniment of the endeavor to take from all voters the right of nominating their public servants. To prevent the elimination of the direct primary and the destruction or modification of that which has added to the common welfare, is work ahead for progressives and this work will be done by the rank and file without, and if necessary in spite of pro-gressivism former leaders."

CALL OUT SOLDIERS TO SUPPRESS FEUD

Arrest of Two Boys Starts Fighting Among White Residents of Kingsland, Arkansas

Pine Bluff, Ark., Jan. 9.—A detachment of the Pine Bluff machine gun company was dispatched tonight to the scene of a reported outbreak resulting from a feud among white residents at Kingsland, Ark., a small hill town, 32 miles southwest of here.

According to telephone reports, leaders of the opposing factions met on a street of the little town this morning and engaged in a fight in which two persons were seriously injured.

The trouble is reported to have started over the arrest of two youths accused of setting fire to a residence.
Members of both factions were patrolling the streets early tonight, according to dispatches.

The appeal for troops came from acting Mayor T. E. Mosley. The soldiers were sent from Pine Bluff in motor lorries.

MINERS ARE DETERMINED

Steps Are Taken to Carry to a Finish the Strikes in Alabama and Mingo County, West Virginia.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 9.—To carry to a finish the strikes of the union coal miners in Alabama and the fight against what is termed the "lockout" in Mingo county, West Virginia, the United Mine Workers of America have sent letters to the 4,000 local unions in the country, levying an assessment of one dollar a month for two months on the entire membership numbering 552,990, according to an announcement made tonight at the international headquarters here by Ellis Searles, editor of the Mine Workers' Journal.
Approximately 50,000 persons in the two fields are being supported by the international union, which up to January 4 had extended $1,345,000 out of its treasury for this purpose.

CARPENTIER OPTIMISTIC AS TO CHAMPION BOUT

Amsterdam, Jan. 9.—Georges Carpentier, champion heavyweight pugilist of Europe, in an interview in the Telegraph today regarding his coming fight with the world's champion, Jack Dempsie, expressed optimism over the outcome. He said it would be a hard fight, but that the result was not for him to predict.

"Whether I retire from the boxing game depends upon the result of the match with Dempsie," Carpentier said. "If I am beaten, I shall retire.
If not, I probably shall go on fighting for some time."

NEW TREASURY OFFERINGS.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Offer of two new series of treasury certificates, the combined issue for about $250,000,000, was announced tonight by Secretary Houston. Both series are to be dated January 15, one maturing October 15 and bearing interest at 5 1/2 per cent, and the other maturing October 15
and bearing interest at 3 1/2 per cent.

The smoke of Men—Then and Now

IN the 1840's, in the 1860's, the men who did things smoked a man's tobacco—untempered, uncondensed, straight good old Burley.

Lots of men today prefer that kind of man's tobacco—and they get it in "Old Warnick."

There came today as it was when Harrison whipped the Red Men at Tippecanoe—a blend of finest straight old Kentucky Burley, matured in the wood, nothing added.

BRIGHTER FUTURE SEEN FOR MARKET

Money Rates Hold Firm and Supply of Available Funds Continues Limited

New York, Jan. 9. — A lively and diversified stock market or substantially higher prices, a fair demand for bonds and affiliated securities also at appreciable advances and other signs of a turn for the better attended the first week of the new year in the financial district.

There was no perceptible easement of rates for money and the supply of available funds was again limited. Despite reported heavy receipts from various sources. The last judgment is that the money market will show no pronounced change until the latter part of the current month.

Authoritative surveys and forecasts of the new year, including the views of Governor Harding of the federal reserve board, sounded an optimistic note in the main, but these were tempered by allusions to the labor market, wage reductions and further curtailments of various industrial enterprises.

Bankers urge the need of economy and thrift but disagreed with those observers who predict a decade of downward commodity prices, indefinite suspension of dividends and more serious disturbances to domestic commerce and related branches of manufacture.

Foreign trade conditions, it is conceded, are becoming increasingly complex and hazardous by reason of the delay in stabilizing international remittances. Recent bank failures in England, Spain, the Scandinavian countries and Mexico are believed to have resulted mainly from these onerous conditions. Leading financial interests here now have under advisement an unusual number of foreign undertakings and their consummation would ultimately relieve the prolonged strain on international credits.

LOCAL MENTION.

—E. W. Engler has purchased through Ceperley & Morgan a building lot on Taft avenue and later may build for himself a residence.

—From this time until further notice there will be only one public market in Oneonta each week. The market day will be on Saturday at the same hours as heretofore.

—The contribution in the list of donors to the Child Feeding fund published on Saturday credited to Miss Ida Howland, South Side, should have been credited to Miss Ida Rowland.

—William D. Hanford of Unadilla secured two excellent views of the D. & H. passenger station in that village on Saturday after a coal car had torn out one side of the station. Copies can no doubt be secured by applying to or addressing him.

—“The Old New Hampshire Home,” a melodrama in three acts, will be given at the Oneonta theatre this evening at 8:15 by a local cast for the benefit of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church. The advance sale of tickets indicates that there will be a capacity house to greet the entertainers. The play will be repeated Tuesday night.

—The second annual dinner of the Oneonta Fish, Game and Gun club takes place this evening at the Windsor, commencing at 8 o'clock. Several local sportsmen speakers will be present and a jolly good time is promised. All members of the club and non-members interested in the work of the club are cordially invited to attend. Tickets may be obtained at the hotel.

—It is important that the officers of the Kiwanis club at New York be informed of the number from this city who will attend the annual dinner in that city on Friday evening to be given at the Arkwright club. Will those planning or hoping to be in attendance kindly notify O. C. McCrum before Tuesday night. The officers of the club are urging that as many as possible attend.

—Tickets for the concert to be given by Sophie Braslau, contralto of the Metropolitan Opera company, at the Oneonta Normal school next Friday night, are selling well, according to those in charge. There are still a large number of desirable seats to be had, however, and early purchases should be made of members of the Clinton society or at the stores of the Carr Clothing store and City Music store.

MERCHANTS TO CONFER

Excellent Program Arranged for Sessions Beginning Thursday Noon and Closing Friday Evening.

Considerable enthusiasm is being manifested in the Oneonta County Merchants' conference to be held in Oneonta on Thursday and Friday of this week, by merchants of the city, as well as those in Cooperstown, Morris and other towns in the county. The program has been arranged by committee representatives of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce, Oneonta County Improvement association, the Merchants' association of Oneonta, and the Cooperstown Chamber of Commerce.

Beginning with luncheon Thursday noon at the Oneonta Hotel restaurant, with Mayor Ceperley presiding and E. B. Moon of the Orange-Judd Publishing company and Prof. James E. Boyle of Ithaca as speakers, the conference will get into swing for a full two-day session. Farm and home bureau representatives will be guests at the luncheon and will participate in the afternoon meeting to be held at Municipal hall.

“Getting the Most Out of Retailing” will be the topic of the main talk at Thursday night's dinner by W. H. Farley of the National Cash Register company, who will emphasize constructive newspaper advertising in his speech. The dramatic club of the Oneonta High school will have a short playlet at the session, under the direction of Miss Bessie R. Coxan, and other features are being arranged.

Frank Stockdale of Chicago, one of the foremost experts on retail store methods, will hold sway Friday. Round table discussion groups, on mercantile problems will be held in the morning at Municipal hall. Mr. Stockdale will talk again at luncheon Friday noon, but his main lecture and the big feature of the conference will be given at the closing session Friday evening at the Oneonta Hotel restaurant, with E. W. Elmore presiding.

Applications from Oneonta merchants are being received by the Chamber of Commerce, and programs and application cards have been mailed to every merchant in the city. All applications should be made early, as reports from Manager Floyd S. Barlow of the Improvement association indicate that a large share of reservations will be taken from merchants from other communities in the county.

MANY GO TO AUTO SHOW

Several Local Dealers Visit Metropolitan This Week — Hatfield Cars Included in the Exhibit.

Oneonta will be well represented at the National Auto show which holds sway in Grand Central palace, New York, this week, according to inquiries made in local automobile circles yesterday. No doubt before the show is over 30 or more Oneontans will have made the 400-mile journey in order to “take in” what is always one of the most interesting exhibits to be seen in the metropolis.

John A. Stus, of the local Buick agency, and G. Paul Shippey and Willis D. Calhoun have already made their way to the big town to get an early glimpse at the “speed boats,” and the following expect to leave for New York within a day or two: R. W. Hume, Fred N. VanVleet, W. O. Brannaman, Arthur M. Butts, C. D. Townsend, S. G. Camp and E. D. Shippey. Members of other local auto firms were undecided last night as to whether they would visit the show, but undoubtedly several will be seen leaving baggage in hand, later in the week. Numerous other local men who, though not interested in the sale of cars like to absorb the latest models will also be “among those present.”

The 1921 show should be a hummer, and no less than 85 different makes will be on exhibit. Local interest centers in the fact that the Hatfield, which is manufactured at Sidney, will for the first time be among those occupying space. The complete list of cars on exhibit is as follows:

Anderson, Apperson, Auburn, Briggs, Buick, Cadillac, Allen, American, Case, Chalmers, Chandler, Chevrolet, Cleveland, Cole, Columbia, Commonwealth, Crow-Elkhart, Davis, Detroit, Electric, Dixie Flyer, Dodge, Dorr, Ford, Buick, Elcar, Elgin, Fergus, F. I. A. T., Franklin, Friend, Grant, Hanson, Hatfield, Hayes, Holmes, Hudson, Hupp, Jackson, Jordan, Kissel, Knickerbocker, Lafayette, Lexington, Liberty, Lincoln, Locomobile, Lorraine, McFarlan, MacDermott, Marmore, Maxwell, Mercer, Milburn, Electric, Mitchell, Monroe, Moon, Nash, National, Noma, Oakland, Oldsmobile, Overland, Packard, Paige, Pan-American, Parson, Peerless, Piedmont, Pierce, Arrow, Pilot, Premier, Rauch & Lang, Electric, Reo, Roamer, R. & E. Knight, Saxon, Savers Six, Scripps, Standard, Stanley, Stearns, Stephens, Stevens-Durren, Studebaker, Stutz, Tappan, Veie, Westcott and Willys-Knight.

Tickets for the Sophie Braslau concert are on sale at the Carr Clothing company, City Music store, Mrs. David H. Mills, 27 Elm street, and Miss Josephine Lauren, 31 Center street. The price is $1.00, which includes war tax and reserves your seat. Normal and High school students, $1.10. Sale for the reserved seats opens at 8 o'clock Thursday morning at the Carr Clothing company. Arrangements have been made to have trolley cars at the Normal at the conclusion of the performance.

COUNTY HIGHWAY MEETING.

State Highway Officials to Address Commissioners and Other Officers.

Announcement is made that a highway meeting will be held on Thursday, January 13, at the Municipal hall in the city of Oneonta, pursuant to a notice filed by the State highway commission with V. L. Hoke, the county superintendent of highways.

The purposes of the meeting are to furnish such general information and instruction as may be necessary regarding the construction, improvement or maintenance of the highways; the department, and the application of the highway law and the rules and regulations of the department, and also for the purpose of hearing complaints. The town highway superintendents and all officials whose duty it is to attend such meetings are expected to be present; and all other officials and the public are urged to attend if interested in highway matters. This is the annual meeting held by the State Highway commission in this county, and it is expected to make it a meeting of interest and benefit to all citizens.

Meeting of Majors and Captains Roscoe C. Briggs, colonel of the team organization of the Chamber of Commerce reorganization campaign, has called a meeting of majors and captains for this afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Having taken possession of my garage in Otego, am prepared to give my personal attention to all repair work and overhauling. Special prices for overhauling during winter months. O. C. Kelly.

SNOW FLOWS ARRIVE.

Will Be Placed on Trucks Operating on Sidney and Cooperstown Lines.

The two Baker snow plows purchased by the Oneonta Automobile club for use in keeping the state roads to Sidney and Cooperstown open during the winter season have arrived and are believed to be the best obtainable.

They weigh nearly 1,000 pounds each and are designed to use on large trucks. They are from appearance well constructed and with power behind them are believed to be capable of bucking the snow effectively. They will at once be placed on the trucks operating on the passenger bus-lines between this city and Cooperstown and between here and Sidney.

While there has been no demand for their use thus far this winter, they may be wanted any day now and the motor club is to be commended for its efforts to keep the highways open. With the present limited schedule on the steam roads the truck lines have come to be almost a necessity while the use of the main highways throughout the entire year is now quite as important.

Motorists appreciating this step, which requires an outlay of practically $500, are urged to send in their dues for 1921 to the Oneonta Auto club and assist in meeting the cost of this step.

Will pay highest market price for furs. William M. Anderson, 255 Main street. Phone 340-K.

ELM PARK CHURCH WEDDING

Miss Ermina Blanchard Becomes Bride of Arthur G. Couse in Pretty Ceremony Saturday Morning.

The Elm Park Methodist church at West End was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday morning, when Miss Laura Ermina Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Blanchard of Richards avenue, was united in marriage to Arthur G. Couse of Kingston, but formerly of this city. The ceremony was witnessed by a large company of relatives and friends of the young couple.

The interior of the church was attractively decorated for the marriage event with evergreens and ferns, the altar being profusely lanked. As the house of 11 was at hand, Mrs. Clarence Strutt rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the bride party entered the church. First came Stuart Butler, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Butler, who was dressed in white and who carried the wedding ring in a yellow basket. He was followed by Barbara Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker, who acted as flower girl, carrying a yellow basket of white primroses. She was dressed in yellow. Next in line was the bridesmaid, Miss Eunice Shaffer, of Schenectady, who was attractively gowned in white with yellow sash and yellow hat. She carried yellow carnations. Miss Shaffer was followed by the bride, who made a fine appearance in a gown of white georgette, embroidered with white beads and with a veil of white tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and orange blossoms. The slippers she wore were used by her mother and older sister when they were married. The bride party indeed made a pretty scene as they marched down the church aisle.

At the altar, the bride and her attendants were met by the groom with his best man, Adrian Blanchard and the bride's brother. The ceremony was then performed by Rev. J. C. Johnson, pastor of the church, the full ring service being used and the bride being given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Strutt softly played "O Promise Me" during the ceremony. Following the ceremony, the bride party, accompanied by about forty relatives and personal friends, adjourned to the dining room of the church, where a very delicious three-course wedding breakfast was served by the Local Workers class, of which the bride's mother is a member. Six girls of the Sunshine class, of which the bride has been a member, acted as waitresses. The room was prettily decorated in yellow and white, and the tables were so placed as to form the letter "H" with the bridal table between two larger tables. The handsomely decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride herself.

In the early afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Couse made their departure in a very noisy auto for the union station, where they took the 2:25 train for Kingston, their future home. Numerous well-wishers gathered at the station to give them a send-off. Upon arriving in Kingston they were immediately taken to a newly furnished home awaiting them at 35 Clinton avenue, where they will be at home to their friends.

The bride has been a life-long resident of Oneonta and is one of the West End's most popular young ladies. She attended the local high school and is well and favorably known by a large number of our citizens. Indicating the good wishes of numerous friends, was the large display of wedding gifts, which included money, cut glass, linen, etc. The gift of the bride's father was a building lot on Butler street, which friends hope Mr. and Mrs. Couse will decide to build on many months pass. Wherever their residence, however, they will have the hearty best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. Couse is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Couse of Wells Bridge and for several months was employed in the D. & H. dispatchers' office here. For the past few months, however, he has been a dispatcher in the Elster and Delaware offices at Kingston.

Out of town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Couse and Mrs. Robert Couse of Wells Bridge, Mrs. Emmeline Shaffer and daughter, Paula of Schenectady, Miss Maida Blanchard of Ellice School Park, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borrell, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson, all of Binghamton; and Miss Faith Barry and Miss Nellie Wier of Cooperstown.

DEATHS.

Thomas John Burke.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burke of this city will learn with deep regret of the death of their infant son, Thomas John Burke, who, born on Christmas day, expired Saturday morning, January 8, at the Fox Memorial hospital. Interment was in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery on Fourth street Sunday morning. The condition of Mrs. Burke, who is still at the hospital, is favorable and she will probably return in a few days to the family home at 7 Watkins avenue.

General sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Burke in their bereavement.

Mrs. Philippina Skates.

Philippina (Mittenberger) Skates, wife of the late E. H. Skates of this city, died at 1 a. m. on Sunday at her home, 56 Miller street. She had been in failing health for several months and death was due to gradual decline of her physical faculties, due to old age. The funeral will be held at the house at 9 a. m. on Tuesday and at 9:30 at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, of which she was a member. Burial will be in the Plains cemetery beside her husband, who died 26 years ago.

Mrs. Skates was born near the Rhinefalls, Germany, October 28, 1812, and came when a young girl to the United States. She was married in this country to Mr. Skates and after a sojourn of some time in Albany the family moved in 1872 to Oneonta, which had since been her home. She was a much respected woman and had many friends who will regret her demise. Her only near surviving relative is a son, Charles Skates, who resided with her.

Edmund J. Weeks.

The body of Edmund J. Weeks of Albany, who died on Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William F. Minnoch, of Coeymans, was brought to Oneonta last evening, and this morning will be taken on the 8:10 trolley to Hartwick for burial beside that of Mrs. Weeks, who died six weeks ago. The deceased, who was a son of Whitney Weeks, was born 62 years ago near Narragansett and in early life resided at Fly Creek, Richfield Springs and Hartwick. For the past 26 years he had conducted trunk and leather goods stores in both Syracuse and Albany, for the past few years in Albany only. He had been ill for a few weeks, and death was caused by general debility.

He is survived by the daughter above named, and by one son, Clair W. Weeks, of Springfield, Mass., both of whom accompany the remains to Hartwick.

MUST RELIEVE OR SHARE

The story of the great need for relief among millions of children in foreign lands, who are suffering because of the deprivations forced upon them by the war, is so sad that it can never be told. Most of them are orphans because their parents have vanished in the great struggle. They are struggling out their poor little hands for help, knowing that if they do not receive it, they will surely perish.

What is to be the future of this territory and its famished millions? Unless something is done, and that soon, these appalling conditions are sure to communicate themselves to the rest of the world. We can no more escape Europe's misery than we were able to escape Europe's war. You cannot have one-half of the world clothed and the other half of the world naked. You cannot have one-half of the world eating and the other half starving. We must help to put Europe back again on its feet, or eventually we will mingle in Europe's misery and be swept into the whirlpool of Europe's destruction.

We must help, and we must do it now. It is our duty to those who have made the supreme sacrifice.

H. W. Fluhrer.

Death at Canadilla.

Unadilla, Jan. 9. — Mrs. A. E. Mallery, wife of the well-known Unadilla grocer, died quite suddenly at her home in this village Saturday morning. The funeral services are to be held from her late home Tuesday at 2 p. m.

Some folks are just naturally inconsistent. They use the best ingredients money will buy but don't include Baker's Certified flavoring extracts.

HOT ON TRAIL OF BORST

MAN WANTED FOR BRUTAL ASSAULT ON ONEONTA GIRL STILL AT LIBERTY.

Officers Horton and O'Dell leave for Northern Part of State on Tuesday. Which Are Expected to Lead to Early Arrest—Troopers Saw Borst at Home Near Central Bridge.

Although the local police department has worked untiringly for the past 48 hours and state troopers have rendered valuable assistance, Freeman Horton, the man alleged to have brutally assaulted the oneonta girl, is still at large. The dragnet being spread for him, however, is believed to be drawing closer and it is expected that his arrest is only a matter of hours.

After eluding arrest in Oneonta Friday afternoon, the police received a report that Borst was in the East End section but by the time the scene was reached, no trace of the wanted man could be found. Meantime, the state troopers throughout this section of the state had been notified of Borst's escape, and immediately went to work. Chief Horton, received word Sunday that the troopers had sighted Borst at the home of his parents near Central Bridge, but it seems that he was again successful in eluding capture. From Central Bridge, the troopers traced Borst to Mechanicville and thence to Whitehall.

This sounded like good news to Chief Horton so later in the day he left by auto with Officer O'Dell for the northern part of the state, in order to be near the scene of operations. No word has been received from the officers since they left, the only telephone call being from Ballston, where the sheriff told Oneonta headquarters that Chief Horton had requested him to notify Oneonta that a man being held there was not Borst. This man was said to resemble the appearance of Borst, but when Horton and O'Dell saw him they found that it was a case of mistaken identity.

Meantime, the few men left to police Oneonta are working night and day, with little rest. They are waiting anxiously to receive further word from Chief Horton and early this morning were expecting a call at any minute. The authorities are thoroughly aroused over the dastardly crime and will not stop until they have Borst in custody. Borst evidently is fully aware that they are hot on his trail. Having already served several years in prison for a similar crime, he is not anxious to get caught again, but it does not seem possible that he can escape from the men that are after him. If he is captured and convicted, the probable sentence will be 20 years' imprisonment. Even that does not hardly seem sufficient penalty for a man guilty of such a crime.

FROM LOWLY TOIL TO FAME

Edwin Dallin, Ranked as Great Sculptor, Was Once Wheelbarrow Boy in Mine in Utah.

One of America's greatest sculptors, Edwin Dallin, was once a wheelbarrow boy in a mine in Utah, where he toiled all day for less than a dollar. The miners uncovered a stratum of white clay one morning, and Dallin, forgetting his work, sat down and began to model a likeness of one of the workmen. So lifelike was it that his teacher, when he returned to school in the fall, sent it and some of his drawings to a state fair being held in Salt Lake City. A rich mine owner had his attention called to the little clay bust and he offered to furnish the boy transportation to Boston where he could enter an art school. The boy worked long and hard, and by the time he was twenty-one he had a studio of his own, the Detroit News recalls. He went to Paris shortly afterward and began a series of Indian poses, using the Indians from the Buffalo Bill show at that time in France. His first masterpiece, "The Signal of Peace," was finished at that time and he was recognized thereafter as one of the world's greatest sculptors. His "Ann Hutchinson," made for the Boston state house; "The Medicine Man" in Fairmount park, Philadelphia, and the great golden angel on the Mormon temple in Salt Lake City are among his best known works.

Unable to Find Wife, Tried Suicide. Believing he was damned if he did not marry, and being unable to find a mate, Andrew Loftquist, forty-eight years old, of Rock Island, Ill., attempted suicide. He began brooding after hearing Billy Sunday preach on "Bachelors."

LAND IRRIGATED BY INDIANS

Before the Advent of the Spaniards the System Was in Vogue Among the Aborigines.

Irrigation began in Texas many years before the lands embraced within its boundaries became a part of the United States, years before those same lands made up what was known as the Lone Star republic, writes James R. Freddy in the American Forestry Magazine. To bring the time down to a more tangible case, the first irrigation work was done according to tradition—when the Pueblo Indians constructed the peculiar ditches about El Paso and the Pecos country, which authorities of today claim were built for irrigation purposes. Another tradition coming out of the past tells that these ditches were built by the Luna Indians when they were driven westward by the Comanches and Apaches, and not by the Pueblos.

When Coronado, the roving explorer, opened this country to the Spaniards he found well-worked irrigation systems among the Indians; this was in 1549 when he was pushing toward the north. The practice of irrigation was continued under the Franciscan fathers, who constructed the five mission ditches that were found near the present city of San Antonio. Even under Mexican rule the work did not stop, and grants by the Mexican government of a read as follows:

In the name of the Mexican nation, grants him one day of water with its corresponding labor of land.

Run Big Bill in "Libre" Taxi. Mexico City.—In the belief that they were graciously being extended the freedom of the city, several Texas excursionists halted a taxicab marked "Libre" and toured the city half a day.

When presented with a rather large bill they protested, telling the driver: his car was labeled "Free" and was part of an entertaining committee's courtesies.

The bill was paid when they were reliably informed that every taxicab "at liberty" or "ready to hire" is marked "Libre."

Buried in the Wrong Town. New Albany, Ind.—Although nothing is known here concerning Samuel Peacock, overseas soldier, whose body arrived here for burial, members of the American Legion took charge of the funeral.

Old Clothes Often Cost More Than New Ones!

Often it is the best economy to get a new suit rather than "make the old one do another season."

A good appearance helps a man amazingly in business. Pierpont Morgan once said that if he had but $10 in the world, he would first buy a silk hat.

A few dollars invested in a suit and a few shirts and ties, have given many an ambitious young fellow a big boost along Success Highway.

By selecting your fixin's at the Carr Clothing Co. you will get full value for your investment of clothes money. And you will have that fine, bracing certainty that you look well, fit and well-fitted.

THE WISE STOCKOWNER

feeds his cattle on the best feed he can get. He knows it pays better than any other kind. To that end he buys his feed where only the best is sold. If you have stock of any kind from chickens up, we urge you to give our feed the test of trial. You'll find it far more satisfactory than the ordinary kind.

Pete Van Doren used to be a regular land-slide for spilling tobacco over his chest whenever he loaded his snuggery. But he swung over to Sweet Orange and now he never spills a crumb.
